Beck—Heitman

Another one of Bollinger county's honored boys of the late war has taken a bride.

Henry Beck of near Yount and Miss Deway Heitman of Patton were united in marriage Thursday, October 25. The bridal couple, accompanied by Miss Grace Johnson and the groom's brother, Jeff Beck, motored to Perryville and were married at the courthouse.

After a picture had been taken of the newly wedded couple at the End art gallery they returned to the home of the bride's grandparents where the wedding was celebrated. A sumptuous supper was served in honor of the bride and groom and their many guests. After supper a large number of relatives and friends of the bride gathered in and gave her a timely shower of linen and aluminum ware. Many beautiful presents were received and a delightful evening was spent by all.

The groom is a thrifty young man of near Yount and a farmer by occupation, and is highly respected by all who know him. He served in the late war with the 32nd division and was wounded August 2, 1918, in the battle of Chateau

Theiry.

The bride is a daughter of Frank Heitman, but has made her home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Cook, since she was a little girl. She is one of the community's most amiable and popular young ladies and fully understands the art of housekeeping.

The young couple will begin housekeeping on a farm near Alliance.

Their many friends wish them a long and happy journey thru life's battles.

Riley Hahn Made Manager of National Refining Company

Word reached Jackson yesterday that Riley Hahn, the clever and genial oil salesman, who for the last seven or eight years has set the pace for all of his company's salesmen, has been rewarded by being promoted to the management of the western division of the National Refining Company, at Hannibal, Mo. This position is an exceptionally responsible one and is never given to any man until his ability has been proven.

The fact that this position means that he will have more than three hundred salesmen under his direction goes to show that Jackson again loses another citizen of unusual ability.

While his friends of this city and county are glad to learn of the good position that has been extended to him, they will regret to learn that the promotion makes it necessary for him and his estimable wife to leave Jackson and make their home in Hannibal, where the headquarters of this division of the company is located.—Jackson Cash-Book.

The winds and the waves are all ways on the side of the ablest navigator.—Gibson.
